RULES & REGULATIONS FOR Betterment

- 1) BETTERMENT: If a student is not satisfied with her/his end-semester results in a particular paper, s/he may opt for BETTERMENT. For this, it is necessary that the student has cleared attendance requirements and during-the-semester (sessional/ midterm) examinations and taken and cleared the end-semester examination. Maximum 2 (two) end-semester theory papers or components are permissible for BETTERMENT. BETTERMENT is not permissible for during- the-semester examinations(midterm) or practical/laboratory components, projects, workshops, assignments and internal assessments. After the BETTERMENT examination, the student will be awarded the grade/marks of the better of her/his two results, i.e. the originally awarded grade/marks or the grade/marks secured in the BETTERMENT examination. Registration for BETTERMENT is only permitted if the particular course/paper being registered for is offered by the University at that time. No registration for BETTERMENT is possible after the degree has been conferred and/or the student has received the provisional/original certificate. All betterment examinations must be completed within 2 (two) semesters (one year) of the end of the normal duration of the course.

A candidate shall be eligible for only one opportunity to appear betterment (improving marks/grades) examination in a maximum of two end-semester theory papers in a particular end-semester examination. For example, a student may appear for betterment say in 1st & 2nd papers of first end-semester examination along with third end-semester regular examination. However, s/he won't be allowed to appear again in the same 1st & 2nd papers of first end-semester examination along with fifth end semester regular examination; but s/he will be allowed to appear in any other two papers along with fifth end-semester regular examination. But if a candidate did not appear in immediate subsequent next first semester examination for betterment when he/she was in regular 3rd semester examinee he/she should not be allowed to appear next 1st semester examination for betterment when he/she was in regular 5th semester examinee.
